CARLY BERLIN

Founder & CEO, Weldun

Carly Berlin is the Founder and CEO of Weldun, a fashion marketplace built around the belief that there is no fixed body. Inspired by her own experience after a preventative mastectomy, Carly created Weldun to become the go-to destination for women and their loved ones navigating evolving physical needs, whether through disability, injury, surgery, illness, pregnancy, aging, or simply life. Weldun brings together beautiful, functional fashion, accessories, and thoughtful gifts, alongside WEL SAID, its editorial platform dedicated to the stories, voices, and lived experiences behind the clothes.
